From the Desk of
The President

It is with great honour to invite you as our professional Fellow and a lifetime member of OXCEL. We are a world class leadership membership organization and an engine for leadership development and thought. As business and the global economy changes, we still thrive to adapt to the changing leadership environment and live up to this commitment. We are driven, every day, by a mission to improve the lives of our members and communities by providing the best in leadership education, creativity and innovation.

I am confident that OXCEL can grow to be more visible as a professional leadership education body in Malaysia and Asia than it is today. Let us build OXCEL together, and work towards the interest of all members worldwide.
